

20260506_Threats to Burn Down My House

Today, as I sit outside with my family, a play is produced on my behalf using various assets that move around me.

Today's message to me: DONALD TRUMP IS THREATENING (AGAIN) TO BURN DOWN MY HOUSE.

This is not the first time that I have received this threat either.

Either on in this process, it was made clear to me that my life is being threatened and my home is at risk of being destroyed by Donald Trump, the 'President of the United States of America.

Thanks, dumbass - you stupid piece of shit.

You have really taken your small problem and turned this into a really, big deal.
